Herald to Publish Babson's Annual Predictions for 1962

Business forecasts for the coming year by the famous Roger W. Babson will again be published by the HERALD at the beginning of 1962. The HERALD will publish "Babson's Business and Financial Forecast for 1962" on Sunday, Dec. 31.

The internationally noted economist's business forecasts have been a regular feature of the HERALD's first-of-the-year edition for several years, and has enjoyed a wide following among HERALD readers.

A CAREFUL checking of his 1961 predictions upholds the remarkable average of the past years by being 83 per cent correct. His forecasts have not dropped below 80 per cent in accuracy in the past 20 years and have climbed as high as 95 per cent in 1946.

The author is the founder of the Babson Institute for Men, and with his wife, the Webber College for Women, both nationally noted educational institutions.

HE ALSO founded the Midwest Institute of Business Administration in Eureka, Kans., and has been active in the establishment of other service organizations, including the Gravity Research Foundation in New Boston, N.H.

Babson has probably done more than any other man to create among his millions of newspaper readers an interest in simple business problems and to instill a broader vision in businessmen, enabling them to meet the ups and downs of the business cycle.

For a picture of what 1962 holds, watch for Babson's annual forecast in the HERALD.

"Santa used to seem old to me — now we're about the same age."

A REMINDER . . . Standing as a grave example of the flame-resistant quality of plaster are these stucco walls of a Bel Air home. The flames that destroyed 450 homes in the disastrous fire had little effect on the rock-hard surface of this building, according to the Southern California Plastering Institute.

"As you meet your Congressmen while they are home, speak out and ask that reckless spending be curbed. We cannot pay our deficit now. Can we leave a bankrupt America to our children?" — Fred C. Latcham, Jr., Beeville (Tex.) Bee-Picayune.

MUSIC MAKERS . . . The comedy-instrumental group, the Bernie Jones Quartet, is playing its fourth return engagement in the Marineland Restaurant's "Porpoise Room" on the Palos Verdes Peninsula.
